

I believe XM Radio should have the right to use the Traffic and weather services to its customers because when you go to XM service you know what channel to use. When I go San Fran I don't know what AM/FM channel to get traffic and weather.